

10 QUESTIONS YOU SHOULD ASK YOUR DOCTOR ABOUT IBS

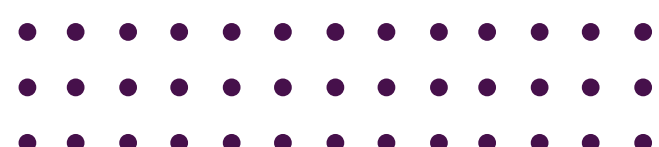

1. Why do you think IBS is the right diagnosis for me?

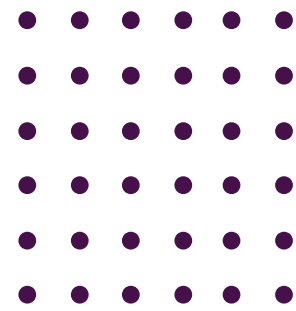

2. Would you recommend a colonoscopy for me? Why or why not?

3. May I have a referral to a gynecologist?

4. How do I know if my symptoms are IBS-related or something else?

5. Am I a candidate for small bacterial overgrowth (SIBO) testing?

6. Am I a candidate for bile acid malabsorption (BAM) testing?

7. Is it possible I have pelvic floor dysfunction? Should I consult a physiotherapist?

8. What symptoms changes should I report to you?

9. When should I seek medical attention for my symptoms?

10. What should I do if I see blood in my stool?

